DESA

1972 DESA

1972 DESA is a brand that was born in 2014 from the distillation of 50 years of the Çelet family's expertise, to become a brand that is recognized the whole world over. The story began in 1972 when the Çelet family founded the DESA Group, which soon distinguished itself in the design and manufacturing of leather and leather goods. Combining DESA's heritage in craftsmanship with the creative vision of Ivana Omazic, 1972 DESA has become globally recognized for its elegance in style and contemporary shapes.

ABSENT FINDINGS

Absent Findings

Absent Findings is not just a brand, but a moment—one that every artist encounters in their lifetime, when absence reveals discovery. Born from leaving behind expectations and stepping outside the confines of a sheltered life, it embodies the truth that in moving away from what we are “supposed” to be, we often find what we are meant to be. Through this lens, forgotten saris, surplus fabrics, and overlooked textiles are transformed into garments that carry memory forward while carving new possibilities. Each piece is an invitation to uncover hidden narratives, to embrace both tradition and experimentation in the act of becoming. At its heart, Absent Findings celebrates that most consequential period of life—the space where being lost allows us to finally be found.

ALBERTO ZAMBELLI

Alberto Zambelli

Founded in 2013, the homonymous brand is recognized for its minimal and decorative style, made up of clean and architectural lines as well as the use of noble materials and precious details. The continuous search for materials, shapes and processes oriented towards high-end Pret-à-Porter and the aptitude for the use of natural materials, have awarded the Designer in 2014 among the 15 talents of Milan Fashion Week. Zambelli in these years makes important collaborations in the East, from which he remains fascinated. And so the East becomes the center of new studies of volumes, in which aesthetics and function are one.

The collections translate a contemporary and personal vision of Made in Italy Heritage, designed, created and produced within the Alberto Zambelli Headquarters at Km Zero.

Amato Daniele

Daniele Amato is the seventh generation of the historic Leu Locati maison. Raised among the artisan benches of his family's workshop, he learned the art of leather craftsmanship from an early age. At just 13 years old, Il Sole 24 Ore named him the youngest and most promising Italian designer. In 2012, at the age of 15, he launched the brand Amato Daniele, which today offers handbags, shoes and accessories handmade in Milan.

Daniele Amato carries forward a legacy of Italian artisanal excellence, blending innovation and savoir-faire to create pieces that are both modern and timeless. Each creation is a tribute to the enduring quality of Made in Italy.

Biagini

Biagini was founded in Bologna in 1968 and, in 1999, was acquired by the Amidei family, which renewed its spirit while keeping its artisanal roots intact.

Today the company is led by the second generation of the Amidei family: Elisa, Luca and Valentina, the brand's creative director, who is shaping new aesthetic codes combining tradition and contemporary vision. Each Biagini creation is made in the Modena workshop with leathers selected from the best Italian tanneries, taking care of each stage of production with attention and passion.

Biagini is synonymous with family passion, continuous research and love for the art of leather goods. An Italian story in constant evolution, rooted in the past and projected into the future.

CHRONOS CORPS

Chronos Corps

Every catastrophe bring with it a rebirth.
Chronos Corps is a corporation the remnants of a post-apocalyptic world into garments that tell the story of man's struggle against time, against himself.

Technology is not at the service of control but of connection. Every fabric or material, every alloy integrated into the design speaks of a new symbiosis between human beings and earth.

DIENÈE

Dienèe

A distortion of the word DNA. DNA as an indissoluble bond between legacy, experience and fearless reinterpretation.

The brand's DNA evolves around a 90s aesthetic, shaped by elements of underground culture and the rigor of brutalist architecture. Design objects featuring clean lines and extremely geometric silhouettes: the Dienèe bags have a minimalist and rigorous look, enriched by the refinement of materials and the unexpected complexity of their structures, synonymous with craftsmanship and attention to detail.

Different styles blend harmoniously within the shapes, accessories and materials chosen: the reinterpretation is intended for the wearer.

LEONARDOVALENTINI | Laboratorio Riciclo Pelle

A dialogue between Luxury, Craftsmanship, and Sustainability

LEONARDOVALENTINI is an aesthetic project focused on artisanal experimentation with fine leathers, ultra-light silks, and refined embroidery, all accompanied by meticulous attention to detail in its signature gold-toned jewelry-like metalwork. Sensuality, boldness, and a cool allure define the brand's silhouettes, unfolding collection after collection into an increasingly complex narrative. 40% Glam, 30% Wild, 30% Punk.

Laboratorio Riciclo Pelle is a craft-based project founded in 2021, born from a melting pot of lifestyles, emotions, and diverse energies between Venice and its countryside, and is 100% Made in Italy. The brand believes in the importance of recycling and reusing, promoting a sustainable and waste-free production system, with the goal of creating an eco-friendly fashion environment - without giving up the luxury of the leather we love.

LORENZO SEGHEZZI

Lorenzo Seghezzi

The Milan-based brand Lorenzo Seghezzi blends traditional Italian craftsmanship with a queer and inclusive vision of fashion. Launched almost playfully in 2020, it has grown into a point of reference for those seeking custom-made garments that challenge gender binarism and mass production standards. At the heart of its creations is corsetry, reimagined as a symbol of freedom and empowerment. Each piece is handmade by the designer and their small team, using advanced tailoring techniques and high-quality materials. The brand has gained international recognition, dressing celebrities such as BigMama at Sanremo 2024 and winning the Camera Moda Fashion Trust Grant.

MARAGNO

Maragno

Maragno is a genderless brand born in 2021, blending luxury with sustainability. It works with fine fabrics sourced from dead stock, giving new life to forgotten materials through an upcycling approach. Its oversized and enveloping silhouettes are inspired by the world of loungewear, telling a story of a fluid, free, and authentic identity. Each piece is a sincere gesture, far from rules. Maragno's dream has no defined borders it lives in the shades in between. And it is there, in imperfection, that it finds the essence of what is true and real. Every detail is a sincere reflection of the soul, a deep breath of freedom, where identity does not impose it reveals itself.

MARCO RAMBALDI

Marco Rambaldi

The brand Marco Rambaldi was born in 2017 in Bologna where the story of inclusion, upcycling and gender bending began. Marco Rambaldi offers a total look with a focus on knitwear and crochet. Besides being unique, crochet is sustainable and converts a memory of the past, a “memoria futura” of a strong and evolving feminism. Made in Italy is reinterpreted in its cultural context, not only synonymous with quality, but also a matrix of creative strength. Only by recovering what is undeniably old but belongs to us will we be able to understand where we come from and what is the world we want to build.
